Applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Applicant must be a resident of Medina County or attend school in Medina County.
2. Applicant and/or family must be a member of the Medina County Fair Association. Applications of those who are not verified as Medina County Fair Association members as of September 14, 2017 will be disqualified.
3. Applicant must have competed in at least one of the following events at any of the previous Medina County Fairs:
 - Medina County Fair Prospect Shows – steers, heifers, goat or lamb
The Medina County Junior Livestock Show in January is not a Medina County Fair event and does not qualify for this scholarship.
 - Medina County Fair Home Arts Show – baked foods, photography, crafts, etc.
 - Medina County Fair Queen's Contest

Participation will be verified and applications of anyone who has not competed in any of the listed events will be disqualified.

4. Applicant must be a candidate for graduation in the spring of 2018 and begin vocational, trade school, college or university the following fall 2018 semester. Should the scholarship winner fail to enroll in post-secondary education in the fall semester following graduation in May or June 2018, the scholarship will be forfeited.

Medina County Fair scholarships are funded 100% by the net proceeds of the prize-winning Baked Foods Auction at the Medina County Fair. Scholarship amounts are based on the net proceeds and number of applicants. Businesses and individuals are welcomed to support the Medina County Fair Association Scholarships through their participation and support of the Baked Foods Auction.
